MEDICINAL. FORTUNE TELLING

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. There is many a woman whose future seems absolutely unclouded who is marked by her own condition for future disappointment and distress.

The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. Without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dross.

Womanly health may be retained or regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

Dr. Pierce offers $500 reward for women who cannot be cured of the above diseases. His "Prescription" has been so successful in curing thousands of cases in the past third of a century that he makes this remarkable offer to show his confidence.

"I have taken six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Miss M. F. of Orlinda, Simcoe Co., Ontario, "and two bottles of his Pleasant Pellets" as you advised for congestion of uterus, ovaries, and weakness, and can safely say that your medicine has been the means of restoring me to good health again, which I had not had for over three years, until taking your medicine. I thank you very much for your kind and prompt attention to my letter asking advice."

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clear the complexion and sweeten the breath.

Nasal Catarrh
In all its stages.
Ely's Cream Balm
cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 40 cents at Drug Stores or by Mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

Mr. Bryan An Aaron.

William J. Bryan addressed an open-air meeting at Marysville, Mo., yesterday, pleading for the election of Joseph W. Folk, democratic candidate for governor of Missouri, and touching on national issues.

Mr. Bryan said that he believed that his hearers would give him credit for courage enough to oppose Parker openly if he did not regard him as the best man for the place, and said he hoped that his reputation for truth and veracity was such that his friends would believe him when he said he was supporting the democratic nominees by every means in his power.

Mr. Bryan said that he was supporting Parker because in all things where Parker was weak, according to his view, Roosevelt was weaker. He said that he had pronounced imperialism to be the paramount issue four years ago, and that he still held the same opinion. He closed his speech with an appeal to the democrats to support the national ticket so that if Parker should be successful the supporters of the Kansas City and the Chicago platform would be in line to take up those things they always had believed in and which they still believed.

Mr. Bryan addressed a large outdoor meeting in Elm Park in Chillicothe, Mo., yesterday afternoon. Having been introduced as the man who would some day be president of the United States, Mr. Bryan said that he used to think he was the president, and that he was the Moses of the democratic party. "But I don't think so now," he said. "Moses, you know, was slow of speech, and the Lord selected Aaron as his spokesman. I believe that I am then Aaron rather than the Moses of democracy. I am willing to be the Aaron of the party if our Moses, who has been so slow of speech will lead the people out of the wilderness."

Presbyterians and Future Punishment.

One of the most interesting features of the session of the Presbytery of Norfolk at Gloucester last week was the report on, and discussion in connection with, the following overture that was presented to the Presbytery:

"Does the disbelief in the future punishment of the wicked, and the belief in the annihilation of the wicked, disqualify for membership in our church?"

The overture was referred to the committee on bills and overtures, the majority of which recommended an affirmative answer.

Rev. Dr. J. E. Thacker, of Norfolk, a member of said committee, offered a minority report as a substitute, which recommended that the overture be answered as follows: "All who earnestly and sincerely believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, are born again of the Holy Spirit and submit to Christ's laws have a right to membership in his church."

Dr. Thacker argued that the answer he proposed is the positive requirement of church membership, and that all who hold it in deed and in truth should be received into the church. He admitted, however, that it might be possible for a person to have such negative belief as to preclude the possibility of his having the required positive beliefs.

The majority report was adopted by the Presbytery almost unanimously. The majority of the committee sustained the principle of Dr. Thacker's proposed answer to the overture, but they didn't think it an adequate answer.

Dowie a Rooseveltite.

Apostolic denunciation of the democratic party, its principles, its candidate for president and its individual adherents and praise for President Roosevelt and his party were thundered by John Alexander Dowie, at Zion City, in the first official message delivered by the "First High Priest on Earth."

To an audience of 5,000, sweltering for three hours in Shiloh Tabernacle, the first apostle of the earth and instructed his thousands of followers to vote for President Roosevelt as the "greatest man of the hour." Then all promised repeatedly and vociferously to vote as John Alexander wished.

With the sermon came the announcement of the "Theocratic party," promulgated by the general overseer to overthrow government "of the people," for the people, "of the people and by the people," replacing it by a divine system of administration that is later to control this country and finally the whole world, wiping out republics, kingdoms and other present governmental forms.

"Parker is a prodigal son," said Dowie. "He comes back after eating the swine husks of the silverites for eight years, and because of his return he immediately wants to be made boss of the whole ranch. He is not pledged to the gold platform. He merely has committed himself to say that the country is committed to that financial plank. He still is the prodigal son, but in disguise."

Broke Into His House.

S. Le Quinn, of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of Chronic Constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his home his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure, 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store.

Sure He Can Prolong Life.

The Chicago Daily News has an interview, especially cabled from Paris, with Professor Metchnikoff on his "new youth bacillus." His idea is based on Pasteur's theory of the existence of beneficent as well as of maleficent microbes, and continues to excite a half derisive interest in the scientific world.

Professor Metchnikoff is indifferent to this feeling. He is certain he has discovered the long sought secret of indefinite longevity. In the interview he says:

"Thus far we have simply declared that this remedy destroys what we might call intestinal flora, which are notoriously abundant in pernicious microbes. In this way we arrest the gradual putrefaction of our bodies.

"I prefer a special kind of coagulated milk, but it is hard to obtain. The substitute consists of ordinary milk boiled and skimmed. To this is added a quantity of my Bulgarian bacillus abounding throughout the Balkans. The taste is agreeable, but sugar may be added to suit particular palates. Two bowls at a temperature of seventy-two degrees should be taken daily. If taken regularly, many years may be added to life, and the remedy is also an almost certain cure for dyspepsia and anemia."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
